“Consider it pure joy, my brothers and sisters,
whenever you face trials of many kinds,
because you know that the testing of your faith produces perseverance.”
James 1:2-3 (NIV)

“Joy is the settled assurance that God is in control of all the details of my life, the quiet confidence that ultimately everything is going to be alright, and the determined choice to praise God in all things.” Kay Warren

So what have I learned through the COVID 19 and what am I thankful for...

- I learned that I do not like restrictions that are confusing and conflicting and not knowing what is true and what is not true and not knowing who I could or could not trust.
- I am thankful for God's Word and His reminders to me that He IS in control, even when things were so confusing and frustrating God took me back to the fact that He is my provider, my strength, my protector.
- I found that I really enjoyed being home and not always on the go and hopefully learned that I need to be intentional about how busy my schedule gets. I am not as young as I once was and if I want to go the 'long-haul' I need to be careful.
- I am thankful for Zoom and the ability to still connect with the gals that I mentor. This has been a really hard time for them and it was great to be able to stay connected and continue working with them on their journey to healing.
- I saw how God gave the ability to reach people we may not have been able to reach out to by having services with Facebook Live or Zoom or YouTube. God is not confined to the four walls of our churches!!

Healing Hearts Ministry Center Update

The project of building a platform, rebuilding the sound room and storage area doors is completed!! We are so grateful to everyone who helped with the project.

On Sunday, June 21, our services resumed at the church building under all the COVID 19 protocols. We will continue to live stream the Sunday morning services for those who are not able to attend at the ministry center.

We have another opportunity that opened up this summer. At the campground, where we have our trailer, we are part of a team that has started having a Sunday service. Depending on who is there depends on how the morning looks—worshipping through song, a sharing time, someone sharing from the Word and a time of prayer. We have one couple who is coming that owns a business and their life had become consumed by that and this has been a time of re-evaluating for them; it is so encouraging to hear them share. The campground owners are excited about the ministry that is happening as that has been part of their vision from the beginning.

In this time of uncertainty - “May the LORD bless you and protect you. May the LORD smile on you and be gracious to you. May the LORD show you His favor and give you His peace.” Numbers 6:24-26 (NLT)

Praise & Prayer

Praise:

- That we can see and be with our family again!! We are looking forward to having grandkids out to the campground again this summer.
- God is at work in ways we do not see or understand!!
- For health and strength to continue ministry.

Prayer:

- That the things God has shown me will not be forgotten.
- That we could be encouragers to those who are struggling.
- Wally is down to only one guy right now as the other one is on short-term disability. Pray for continued strength and for wisdom to know when to have someone else in to cover a job.
