KEEPING UP WITH CAYLEA

If you ever feel like it is hard to "keep up with Caylea," you are not alone. I can hardly keep up myself! Gears shifted as camp ended this summer and I needed to focus on the social media part of my ministry as we entered the NCEM conferences this fall. It has been awhile since seeing all the missionaries together again and with all the new ones who have joined recently I had a lot more to meet. I managed to attend 2 out of 3 conferences doing my normal picture taking duties. Along with that I was honoured to be asked to help lead worship during some of the sessions at both events. I really enjoy being a part of music teams and God has taught me a lot through it this year as I use music to help me process through hard times. God always deserves praise even if our circumstances want to tell us otherwise.

YAYS & NAYS

- Praise God for all the NCEM missionaries and our time together during the conferences
- Pray for the campers/staff in the surrounding communities and our ongoing relationships with them
- Pray for continued financial support(I am at 64%)

Upcoming Events

Millar Missions Conference:
Jan 20 - 22

NBC Missions Conference:
Feb 10 - 11

Kerith Retreat: Feb 21 - 28

Recently, some of our staff and I were able to attend the grand opening of the new rink/highschool on Big River First Nation (photo below). A lot of the kids that come to camp live in this community. Walking around in my BRBC hoodie I had a group of kids start waving excitedly to me. I walk over to say hi and one of the kids leaned over to her friend and said "who's that girl again?" I smiled as her friend quickly reminded her "that's the girl who played piano on stage remember!" I was really happy to witness these kids who were excited to see anyone from camp even if it was only the piano player. I bet they are already looking forward to next summer. Entering winter I have not quite found a long term home for myself yet but I have a house sitting job for the next 3 months and will call that home for now. It has been a lot to adjust to but I think I am getting the hang of northern living. As you may see I can now hunt my own chickens! Who knows what will happen next! Thank you for sticking with me another full year and being an incredible support team. Please don't hesitate to contact me if you ever have questions. Have a wonderful Christmas season!

Would you pray and consider joining my monthly support team?
